

Put a face on it

62 toys in my daughter's toy box.

42 have faces. Have smiles. She picks one up, smiles back.

Shakes it. It jingles. She talks to it

Are you my mama?

No answer. She holds another.

Do you like me?

I don't try to stop her: this is how we learn to pray.